

Mesh Gradients in Use

Bright

Used at touchpoints where a soft, welcoming impression is needed—such as office environments or retail spaces. When paired with lighter tones, it reflects brand values of warmth, freedom and joy.

Vibrant

Ideal for high-impact areas like outdoor posters or retail displays. Its bold visual presence conveys vitality and the brand's spirit of possibility.

Deep

Best for immersive settings like product launches or exhibitions. Combined with dark backgrounds, it reinforces themes of advanced innovation and cutting-edge technology.
