

The color system is a key tool for shaping brand perception. By dynamically balancing neutral and vibrant colors, it conveys both the technological and innovative nature of the business and the emotional value of human care.

At the same time, we apply this core logic across sub-brands to ensure a harmonious yet distinctive identity within the brand family, enabling coordinated synergy.