

We have developed three categories of templates for Anker Innovations' layout: one is the brand communication template for the main brand, and the other two are tailored for the domain brands according to the key information to be transmitted.

The template design highlights the Ultimate Essence, guaranteeing a distinct visual hierarchy and adequate white space to improve the legibility and aesthetic appeal of information across all channels.