

A photograph of three people—two women and one man—collaborating in a dimly lit office at night. The man on the left, wearing a blue sweater and a chain necklace, holds a tablet. The woman in the center, wearing a teal polo shirt, and the woman on the right, wearing a light purple sweater and glasses, both look intently at the tablet. In the background, a laptop screen displays lines of code. The scene is illuminated by warm, ambient light, creating a focused and collaborative atmosphere.

The people we communicate with are also "creators." They embody the values of "First Principle. Seek Ultimate. Grow Together" and demonstrate concentration and sincerity in their friendly interactions.
