

Brand Partnership Logo Appearance

To maintain background harmony and readability, partner logos should preferably appear in solid black or white.

If a partner logo must appear in its native color, the background should be light and uncluttered.

To maintain background compatibility and readability, partner logos should be displayed in pure black or pure white whenever possible.

When partner logos must appear in their original colors, the background must be light-colored and visually clean.

