The hero image design of products is applied in core scenarios such as packaging design. To achieve harmony and unity in the family image of the company's products, the design of the product hero image should comply with the following design principles.